

The LuzernQuartett has recently distinguished itself at the 1st International String Quartet Competition in Radom/Poland 2011 (2nd Prize and Special Prize) as well as at the ORPHEUS Competition 2011 in Geneva/Switzerland. The quartet was founded in 2009.

The four members were then studying at the “Hochschule Luzern-Musik”, where the quartet received guidance from Prof. Isabel Charisius and Prof. Sebastian Hamann. They also participated in masterclasses with Ferenc Rados, Felix Nickel, Adelina Oprean and Uli Fussenegger.

Since October 2010 the quartet has been taking part in a two year course for string quartets with the Alban Berg

Quartet at the the “Hochschule für Musik und Tanz Köln”. They are planning CD recordings, competitions and concerts in Switzerland and abroad for the next season.

The quartet’s concert schedule has included a performance at the KKL Lucerne (pre-programm of the “Luzerner Sinfonieorchester”) and they have also played as soloists with the “Kammerorchester Baar”.
